Ebenseer Glöckerlauf, inscribed 2010

The annual Glöckerlauf procession takes place on 5 January and is characterised by the typical white costumes of participants, the carrying and clanging of giant bells and the wearing of enormous candle-lit caps decorated with various designs and figures. In the last decades, interest in the Glöckerlauf parades throughout the Salzkammergut has increased as the tourism potential of this tradition has been recognised.

Salzkammergut Vogelfang, inscribed 2010

The tradition of bird-catching (Vogelfang) in the Salzkammergut involves the trapping of specific local wild birds in autumn, care of the birds in aviaries outside the catching season and exhibition of the wild birds on the Sunday before Kathrein (end of November). During the exhibition, the most beautiful birds are awarded prizes based on their rich colouring, integrity and flawless care condition. In the spring, all of the birds, except the lure birds, are released back into the wild.

Ebenseer Fetzenzug, inscribed 2011

The Ebenseer Fetzenzug is an annual carnival parade on Fasching-Monday in Ebensee. The participants, the so-called "Fetzen", don well-worn women's clothing to which rags and tatters have been sewn. They also wear ragged hats as well as artistically carved wooden masks. An important element of the rag parade is the chiding and teasing of parade on-lookers.

Lichtbratlmontag in Bad Ischl, inscribed 2011

Every year on the Monday after Michaeli (29 Sept), Lichtbratlmontag is celebrated in Bad Ischl. This celebration stems from a custom where in the past, employers treated their workers to a "Bratl" or pork roast on the first autumn day when artificial light was needed for work. Today, the event revolves around celebrations for all those having decade birthdays that year. Starting at age 50, any native or permanent resident of Bad Ischl is invited to participate in the festivities.

Wirlinger Böllerschützen, inscribed 2011

The Wirling Traditional Rifle Club is presumably the only organisation in Austria that is authorised to conduct traditional Böller shootings. The Böllerschützen (Böller riflemen) accompany religious and secular festivals. The specially constructed Böller rifles are positioned on a rise and depending on the occasion, fired at precisely determined times. It is important to wait for the echo of the Böller, which can last up to 12 seconds, before firing the next round.

Aberseer Schleuniger, inscribed 2014

The "Schleunige" - also called "Schleinige" in old texts - is a form of play and dance exclusively found in the Salzkammergut. A special regional variation of the Schleunige can be found around Lake Wolfgang in Abersee, Strobl, St. Wolfgang and St. Gilgen. With a duration of 10 to 12 minutes, the Aberseer Schleunige is a very long and complex dance.

Liebstattsonntag in Gmunden, inscribed 2014

Liebstattsonntag in Gmunden occurs every year on the fourth Sunday of Lent. Both Gmunden Tracht Associations along with the Goldhaube and Headscarf Group meet at nine o'clock to attend Mass in the city parish church. Afterwards, they form a festive procession and march to the city hall square accompanied by the local marching band. After a short welcome and explanation of the custom, association members present decorative gingerbread hearts to guests and the public.

Traunkirchner Mordsgschicht, inscribed 2014

The Traunkirchner Mordsgschicht is a musical performance in the style of street ballad singing. Although originally found throughout the Salzkammergut, today this tradition is only practised in Traunkirchen. On carnival Sunday (Faschingssonntag), the singers, dressed in tail coats and top hats, go from one tavern to another and tell humorous anecdotes about the village community from the past year. In return, the singers are treated to food and drink or receive monetary compensation for their efforts.

Assembly and Visitation of Landscape Nativities, inscribed 2015

The Salzkammergut landscape nativities are typical folk nativities which embed the biblical story of the birth of Christ into the local environment. Over time, simple nativity scenes developed into figure-rich landscape nativities which often fill an entire room. The annual assembly and visitation of the hundreds of landscape nativities in private homes during the Christmas season demonstrate the great importance of this tradition for the people of the Salzkammergut.

Ausseer Fasching, inscribed 2016

The Ausseer carnival takes place from Fasching Sunday to Fasching Tuesday. Three main figures play a significant role: Trommelweiber, Flinserl and Pless. In addition, on all three days, so-called carnival letters are read aloud in various taverns and restaurants, whereby mishaps, village politics and local anecdotes from the previous year are lampooned in rhyme and song and illustrated with hand-drawn pictures.

Pigeon Shooting in Altaussee, inscribed 2016

Pigeon shooting was once widespread from the North Sea to South Tyrol. However, today it is only practised in Altaussee and Nußdorf am Inn (Bavaria). Each year, the members of the pigeon shooting club meet at the Schneiderwirt for traditional pigeon shooting starting the first Sunday after All Saint's Day until one week before Fasching Sunday - a social sport with at least three shooters and a wooden pigeon.

The Fuhr on Lake Hallstatt, inscribed 2020

The "Fuhren" (flat transport boats made of wood, also called "Plätten") have a long tradition on Lake Hallstatt as a means of transporting goods and people. In the 13th century, after the reopening of the salt mine in Hallstatt, shipping became necessary for transporting wares on the lake and Traun River. Today only a few individuals still master this particular craft.

Nikolospiel in Bad Mitterndorf, inscribed 2020

The Nikolo Play in Bad Mitterndorf is a parlour and parade performance that is performed annually on 5 December in various locations. The play originally took place in farmhouses and inns. Since 1959, the Nikolospiel has been presented to a wider audience in the main square of Mitterndorf. The play consists of various figures which form a procession between the performance locations.

Gmundner Keramik, inscribed 2021

The term 'flaming' is used to describe the unforgettable design of these ceramic pieces. As early as 1600, recurring decorative elements on ceramic had taken root all around Gmunden. Early discoveries of white-blue coloured ceramics from the region stem from this time period, and from these developed the typical decorative technique known today as the 'Flamed' or the 'Gmunden Tableware'. Today the 'Flame' ceramic makers continue to pass along their expertise, taking approximately two years for artisans to perfect their skills.

Salzwelten Altaussee - Treasure Mountain

Current opening times at salzwelten.at

Children ages 4 and up may visit the salt mines!

Alongside the long miners' slides, the underground salt lake and St Barbara's Chapel, made entirely of rock salt, another secret lies hidden deep inside the mountain. During the Second World War, priceless works of art were stored in the tunnels of Austria's largest active salt mine. Thanks to the courageous miners who rescued them, their destruction was prevented.

Lehárvilla Bad Ischl

Visit the villa on the Traun River that Franz Lehár purchased in 1912. Here, artists, librettists, and publishers shaped his creative process. Lehár lived in Bad Ischl for 46 years and completed his masterpieces here. He bequeathed the villa to the town on the condition that it be preserved unchanged and made accessible to the public. Here, immerse yourself in the summer retreat of the late 19th and early 20th centuries and Lehár’s world.

We love craftsmanship. Craftsmanship creates beauty; it's regional and sustainable. Craftsmanship fits right in with our times! The Hand.Werk. Haus is a centre for contemporary craft culture, housed in Neuwildenstein Castle in the heart of Bad Goisern. In the exhibition spaces, visitors can discover all things related to craftsmanship—from head to toe, from the gable to the cellar, and from hand to mouth. Interactive workshops allow visitors to try their hand at crafting and gain hands-on experience.

The Tauplitz - Here your heart soars.

Sun, more sun and a 360-degree panoramic view. Snow-sure slopes spread over several ski mountains with almost all above the tree line. Numerous freeride lines of various lengths and directions. A protected children's area for families. Sounds like your dream ski region? It is!

The Tauplitz is the largest single ski region in Styria: 43 magnificent kilometres of slopes can be found connecting to the central Tauplitzalm. The alm is car-free in winter, and when you ascend with the mountain lift, you leave all stress and worry behind. Here everyone will find their favourite slope for carving, gliding or powdering. The eight-seat gondola and modern lifts bring you all the way to the top. The fully snow-covered slopes ensure maximum skiing enjoyment from 28 November through 4 April, from 08:45 to 16:00.

Family Ski Resort Feuerkogel

© Traunsee Touristik GmbH / Michael Grössinger

Your friendly winter sports paradise

The Feuerkogel family ski resort delights with its modern cable car facilities and family-friendly slopes, which are not only ideal for children but also for beginners and those returning to the sport. In “Franzis Drachenpark”, little ski stars will find numerous adventure stations where their first turns can be learned.

For leisurely skiers and snowboarders, the Feuerkogel offers diverse possibilities with perfectly groomed slopes and always a fantastic 360-degree panorama view of the Dachstein Mountain and lake region.

And for winter fans who want to get to know the Feuerkogel off-piste, there are five marked snowshoe trails and four signposted ski touring routes.

Dachstein Krippenstein

At Dachstein Krippenstein, all winter enthusiasts get their money's worth. Skiers and snowboarders can enjoy perfectly prepared slopes as a warm-up and then Upper Austria's longest valley run with a length of 9 kilometres and 1,500 metres of elevation change. At the top, there are 30 kilometres of off-piste variations which provide for diverse powder experiences in a class all their own.

From the mountain station of the Krippenstein, a ski touring paradise lies before you - from relaxing half-day tours to multi-day excursions, anything is possible.

For more leisurely winter enthusiasts, there are well-marked snowshoe trails leading to the 5fingers Viewing Platform, the World Heritage Spiral and the Dachstein Shark.

Loser Ski Resort Altaussee Ski Lifts

© Loser Bergbahnen/K. Krumböck

The Loser. Mountain of the Four Seasons.

The snow-sure family ski resort in Altaussee in the Styrian Salzkammergut extends over 1000 metres of elevation and offers an attractive range of 34 kilometres of fantastically prepared slopes and fog-free panorama views across the Ausseerland and into nearby Upper Austria. The new ten-seater panorama lift provides breathtaking views and allows for undisturbed fun on the slopes without long waiting times. Skiers, sledders and winter hikers reach the top of the mountain quickly and comfortably with the barrier-free cable car.

Beginners as well as more advanced skiers will find plenty of space for gliding, carving and curving along optimised slopes. Sledding fun for the whole family awaits on the 8-kilometre-long panorama road while action on the “Loserfenster” wave track and fun in the free-ride areas round out this winter adventure.

Thanks to the new gondola lift, optimal altitude and full snow coverage, you can enjoy fun on the slopes even outside the peak season from the first snowfall until spring.

Excellent fun on the slopes and gentle winter pleasures in "Dachstein West - naturally in the Salzkammergut"

1,160 kilometres of slopes offer a cross-border skiing experience with all the amenities, including state-of-the-art ski lifts, perfect snowmaking, the 44-kilometre "Dachstein Tour" ski circuit, four ski schools and just as many kids' areas, and the Marcel Hirscher Race Course—all with views of the high-alpine panorama of the Dachstein, yet in a pleasantly relaxing low-mountain setting. Pure fun at the Dachstein West Family Park: a sunny location, lift access, and rails and jumps delight young and old alike.

For the first time ever, the AUDI FIS Women's Ski World Cup will take place on December 28 and 29 at Hornspitz in Gosau, featuring the giant slalom and slalom disciplines—an event you definitely won't want to miss.
