Performances Wandelbühne "The Robbers"

7:00 PM | Circus tent - St. Lambrecht school center | St. Lambrecht

After the successful theater camps, the participants will present the play "The Robbers" - a dazzling performance loosely based on Friedrich, to the audience. "The Robbers" centers on the experiences of a band of robbers and their youthful exuberance. They want to change society for the better - at any cost. The classic will be reinterpreted in a contemporary way - exciting, entertaining, and easily understandable for all age groups. Just as only the Wandelbühne can do! Tickets and information: www.wandelbuehne.at

DiE DiVVAS - Cabaret

7:30 PM | Castle Stage Rothenfels | Murau

Two divas from Murau take the stage: Anna Gitschthaler and Verena Bauer, friends since their youth, who have gathered their first stage experiences here. Musically accompanied by Florian Fradler, they present their program DiE DiVVAS together for the first time. Elegant, rustic, and shamelessly cheeky, charmingly dramatic elegance collides with uncomfortably honest directness. Provocative comments meet confident presence. There will be arguing, singing, and laughter – until no eye remains dry.

Thematic hike nature myth and history – Mariahof southwest

1:00 PM | Meeting point: Parking lot Furtner Teich | Neumarkt in der Steiermark

Together with members of HistAK, we will walk along the route of the app "Legendary Landscapes" through the cultural landscape between Furtner Teich and Mariahof. The Benedictine monastery of St. Lambrecht, which celebrates its 950th anniversary this year, has shaped the region for centuries. What influence did the monks have on the land and its people? What tasks were reserved for the secular rulers? Who dispensed justice and maintained order? From the idyllic Furtner Teich, the path leads to the legendary gallows, past small chapels to the fortified church of Mariahof. Exciting stories, legends, and historical insights combine with the charming nature to create a unique hiking experience. More information at: www.sagenhafte-landschaften.at
